

Art and Dave

Based on the following script, describe the situation in 2 paragraphs:

"that's what I'm talking about and if there's a [__] problem let me know and we can both all right I'm gonna go ahead and uh I hate drama and this video was not intended to be drama it was supposed to be something cool and exciting it with that [__] right oh snap somebody's neck I caught wind of a guy that has a lot of helicopters and a lot of helicopter Parks like 60 000 Parts 12 helicopters

I think we're gonna make a deal with it uh I'm gonna buy it what's the deal right now might I'd be that I just leave 10 grand here over the weekend and then I never see it again I don't think it's gonna happen I trust him we're gonna come back Monday land on a final number right now we're still somewhere between 150 000 and 300 000 which is still smoking good deal foreign

[Music]

outstanding red sauce delicious egg on point

[Music]

all right guys welcome back to Arizona we are here this is day number two um on the helicopter deal we were here on Friday went home I left them on the deposit and now uh My Buddy Joe from thoroughbred Aviation a guy who built my Blackhawk greatest mechanic ever he's been going over the paperwork books everything trying to establish kind of a rough inventory figure out what's going on in here and help me understand what it's worth because I still haven't landed on a final price with these guys so we're gonna go in talk with art and Sebastian and see how close we can get to making a deal and uh yeah we'll see where it goes did see the book for the turbo Mecca that's over here seemed to have uh misplaced the keys huh

[Music]

all right awesome who did it right here this is the key shut up there you go well done there you go you tried all the keys are right there yeah yeah
no ducks

[Music]

I think this is a cassette player or it could be like an old Nintendo 64. we gotta blow it I think get it to work again I think everything in here is helicopter stuff oh what's up see radio there's no way what do you mean there's no way I'm so confused why you guys don't think I can make this work the angles bro okay I'm impressed freaking Spiderman and James Bond all in the same character I'm gonna help you all right so starting negotiations again here today we were last year on Friday and uh it's just the story keeps on changing not accusing anybody of anything but um I think there's a lot of emotions involved here with the way this whole deal has been put together and the way this whole Warehouse has been built over the years obviously this is you know a lot of time and energy for somebody but uh you know we're the hard part is identifying what I'm actually buying and so I'm trying to identify what I'm buying and say is that part of it is that part of it and I'm being told well that's not but that is and that's not that is which isn't going to work because if I lived right next door we could easily come down here and say Yep this is it that's not you know and go through the stuff but since we don't and we all got to get back to Salt Lake and Joe's got to go back to Kentucky and you know this is not our we're not here every day we have to have a very clean black and white this goes out this is yours everything else stays type of situation and that's that's going to be the easiest cleanest way to do it so yeah and bro listen ain't no return burning here man there's I know 40 [__] no 50 million I know I'm not accusing and all that stuff I can move it outside and I'll tow it away yeah it's simple as that yeah I'm not gonna negotiate here and there that's like that's that's harsh right you know that what do you mean by that meaning the forklifting okay that's a little hard and then well I'm not sure I just had expectations exactly and they're fully here yeah at the same time it is what it is you're getting a smoking deal right understood by the deal I can't have the deal change once I understand what the deal is that's why I'm trying to figure out exactly tools and stuff if you don't want the racking we'll take it but everything was included forklift is going to a guy that's in a wheelchair fell out of the sky or the helicopter didn't know that Friday his son died sure in a helicopter don't donating it to him because they're broke down so you told me forklift's not part of it you can have it I'll buy him another one but that's fine I'm just trying to establish expectations I'm not trying to tell you that you should or shouldn't here's the thing my personal stuff right like tools and stuff like that yeah

I got my toolbox out of here already no problem yeah that stuff come on I'm not asking if we talked about that when we started the conversation exactly but when everybody comes in here and they're all tensed up in the room everybody's got to get out everybody it's like so military it says to calm down right this is a friendship thing sure this was a good thing that's great for everyone do things for people yeah as I do too and that's what the that's what the whole thing was about right but when we come in here and everybody's like on edge I don't think anybody's on edge I think we're all just kind of focused on trying to concentrate on so let's all sit down putting everything talk rather than running around and talking about we got to check this we got to check that make sure that's no there's no private conversations happening here everybody's assessing from wall to wall what's happening let's calm down like we did before right that way everything's chill and we're all there is good about it we're all there everybody because when everybody's moving fast and everybody's checking everybody's like so focused on you know forklift tools are everything everything seriously that landing gear 10 of those landing gears is you know I can show you a box that's 10 times that yeah it is what it is we're good man yeah we're we're gonna have this because I'll run this [__] out the door for sure and that's just what I'm about yeah it was already going out the door yeah Lamar [__] me just like everybody else before that no AC six months it pushed me out six days before right yeah I was supposed to stay six days seriously he starts telling me there's no trucks there's no problems there's nothing dumpster it goes I filled out seven huge dumpsters and had about 15 guys oh 15 trucks come out here with guys for scrap metal it was going out the door yeah I heard that you do some good stuff you did some research I don't do social media right and I said you know what let's donate some stuff yeah and then he's got a lot of things going on a part of the technology all that stuff let him succeed yeah I'm good I don't need anything conversations so now today it doesn't seem like that no we're on the same page all I wanted to do today was show up and figure out exactly what we're buying and what the separation looks like because there has to happen sooner or later otherwise it would already happened it already happened it's just like I said totally personal stuff that's what I'm learning though that's the questions I'm having I could have sworn we said personal stuff forklift wasn't a part of the conversation so that's that's what that's right I don't want to say forklift over again the forklift stays yeah no problem you guys need it so what I what I mentioned Sebastian is a good thing that we could do is walk around with a piece of tape or something and just Mark everything that we don't need to I just need to get my [__] out of here and that's it well that's a problem I need to understand what's your [__] uh my tools the stereo and different things like that it's just it's very simple though this is not like a nitpick that's mine that's yours this is a hey walk with me Dave I want to show you that's my speaker system that's my this that's why that that's the stuff I'm gonna get out today all you're doing is helping me identify what's going to be pulled out we're not negotiating over here because it's not a business deal right this is a giveaway sure and I'm not going to keep any of your personal stuff that's well I wouldn't give it right I'm giving stuff away I'm not selling it right so this is a donation obviously sure right try to understand what the separation of donation donated items are yeah that makes sense my personal stuff I obviously wouldn't donate like my stereo on my couch and my underwear and all I wanted to do is identify what that is I don't want to have my guys come in here start packing up one of your speakers yeah I'm not negotiating a deal we're helping people out obviously you're probably going to do some good with this you help people out that's the only thing that's on my mind right nothing about a deal right because that's not a deal that's uh I'm walking away from everything basically sure so if we're gonna do that then I'll just start dumping again and I don't that was the whole point of it I just want this to do some good if it's going to do some good then that's what it's about but it's not an ideal simple you know we got to be on that same page because here I'm feeling a little bit more agitated more more fast more follow your mind and all of a sudden he's not feeling good about it I'm not feeling good about it right and there's too much movement too much fast specifics what's this oh we got Drone footage okay no worries he didn't take that Bolt that that ain't happening right that's not [__] happening if this ain't enough and that bolts are concerned that it ain't enough it'll never be enough I'm just saying let's walk walk it back a little bit yeah who who brought up concerns well somebody's talking about Drone footage oh you guys said it no you brought it up you you said you have the Drone footage that you can expect waiting no no no you guys said it right here you said it right here to your guys and I repeated it later yeah that is true that is so clear I would have never said that unless I heard it sure I just wanted to make sure that that's what we're talking about if that's that's the that's what I'm talking about sure that's not what was last time we met completely different and this here is okay we're coming in we're doing this this is specific we're locking the doors we want to make sure nobody's in here dude that's a deal that's this is not a deal oh okay I misunderstood This Is Us hold on hold on because it's nice and I I came in I came in under the expectations that we were making a deal granted big deal is interesting and it was it was creative and the way we're going to do it is you know I'm going to support Sebastian what he's doing perfect but I didn't come in on the expectation of some Community idea of just this ebb and flow that I have zero control over because I understand but I'm putting a lot of money into this that oh I have to be able to control I know you have I'm not even I'm not good this is not comparing yeah apples and oranges of seven days a week all I'm trying to say is this is this is a deal to me yeah whether it's a donation deal or whatever it is there is money changing hands and it has to be drawn it just has to be crystal clear so that your expectations are met and mine are met does that make sense and I was crystal clear sure all we're doing is clarify it right what else I mean this conversation is is clarifying this is not nobody's accusing anybody but when I come in here and everybody's we got a Drone footage of this we got the guys walking around how many landing gears all this right that's not gonna happen well I always want to hear that [__] if you heard that conversation that was because that was right behind you I was working with you I understand hearing that conversation that was probably somebody saying it looks different than last time what happened what things have different the whole place looks yeah because I [__] move [__] around and I have to get stuff inside understood and I cleaned it up and I started organizing it right and I started getting new packaging material I started labeling things I started moving this stuff packaging all that separating things out make sure the boxes getting the paperwork done yeah I was here for the last two nights straight I haven't slept in three days no I know doing here coughing up dust right not complaining for sure doing a good thing and not even mention I didn't want to [__] mention that [__] right but what it should be oh looks good let's look at this nothing has been moved other than that thing that was up there which the tools are right there that's it what else you got something to say hey all right I'm going to go ahead and uh so if there's a concern then let's bring it out to the open if you see a box that's different ask me and I'll show you where it is if you got a picture of it I'll find it for you brother I'll find it for you man but so who am I talking about this this donation with you Sebastian at this point I'll be overhearing it because uh you know this is uh I gotta I gotta support my kid at this point right I thought we're we're clear but all you know I know negotiations I know a little bit more I don't want him being stressed out because this is a now a stressful situation yeah and it's not the fun thing that we were discussing last time and it feels completely different brother yeah I'm not sure how that changed well probably the jaw footage comment yeah yeah and then bouncing around and oh the room and then what was your room there's a room specific specific specific specifics and then I need everybody out here just so we're clear as soon as I think I need the door is locked yeah I guess there there was a there was a completely understand I didn't say anything yeah it was just right I'm like whoa wait a second yeah you know that's part of finalizing an agreement you know that's not the way I finalized all of this right and I've done monster deals but I'm not I'm not saying you know and I've never I've never went in and right I always I need you please help me help you and I've always he's been through so much you guys are here full time I have limited time I'm trying to be as well and that's why I said everything else I'm just trying to be as efficient with our time here as possible and I'm not trying to waste your time or anybody else's time so that's why when I come in I get to the point that's me trying to be respectful of your time yes I'm not trying to disrespect you yeah at all because I have nothing but respect of course I and thank you at the same time don't do that I understand I'm here for you I've been here for you right I don't expect any money for sure I helped out the natives for three [__] years not a dollar I asked for right um there for people yeah but I'm not gonna be [__] profit in this house fully supportive of anything you want to know for sure that's [__] video whatever the [__] you want to do let's do it if you're missing a box let me know we'll find it yeah we'll search this [__] until we find it that's what I'm talking about and if

and we could both part ways because I'm not going to stress like this right and this month when I'm doing a good deed yeah and I don't want to be acknowledged I just don't want to be [__] on right at the same time because I've been through some [__] and I got enough [__] trying to [__] me out there right and that ain't gonna happen yeah if they didn't do it out there they didn't do anything here yeah and I was six months without AC right six days to move out trying to change the locks for what Right For What trying to take my [__] for free oh that doesn't happen yeah no no no no that makes sense I had people trying to walk through the door asking about my son taking pictures of you and him talking the [__] out of here with that [__] right I'll [__] snap somebody's neck I am tired of that you know how many people have come here to try to know every single body was put in the date on Wednesday when my move out day was Tuesday right

really man

we spent the last couple hours going back and forth with art obviously this is uh again like I said this was already this is kind of his life's work and so he's a little emotionally attached to some of the stuff

I've got some concerns and I'm not going to get into kind of too many details of what they are but bottom line is my guts telling me that I probably shouldn't do this full deal and it's a lot of it's because I don't have full control over what's happening here

um

yeah it's just that's that's that's it in a nutshell

so I'm ready to walk away from the deal however I already gave them 10 grand and uh I want the dolphin helicopter but I don't want any of the drama that comes with it with the warehouse and everything so I'm thinking I'm gonna try to possibly throw an offer right now to just buy the dolphin and all the parks and stuff with it from 100 Grand or something and see if they go for it and then walk away because I just don't feel real comfortable with everything that's going on so here we go see what happens with it I might have just thrown 10 grand of Nothing by giving them a deposit if we leave here empty-handed because something tells me probably not get a refund but we'll see [Applause]

foreign comes a good agreement on price whatever we still then have to ship it all back to Utah or to Kentucky Warehouse inventory Warehouse ship it how long none of us are gonna even because you you sell part right now on the regular right how long is the average shelf life impossible to say the stuff that was going to move fast already moved so the stuff that's here two days 12 years right take advantage on the aircraft if it's popular there's a lot of parts for sale online right now for the dolphin and the Pumas you're talking about two what Airbus considers Legacy machines so it just comes down to the operator how many opera most Pumas are operated overseas now they're not even operated in the states thank you so okay let's say he buys just the dolphin then it then it's the fear of making sure we leave here with everything we need to get it running before we put ourselves in even bigger bind so we don't have to then contact him to buy the parts that we didn't come home with exactly that would be scary all right time to call the bank and put a stop payment on a check oh really

bummer

you want to put that in other words and answers our question in other words the deal went South uh we're getting out of here because they don't have any options

I think that might be their security

yeah

it works I would like to access your account I just kept getting a really yucky feeling every every conversation

I've had I kept getting worse and worse and worse and when they finally demanded that I send money overseas to some military contractor company that they do business with that doesn't make sense so you didn't get this dolphin yet but you will have a dolphin soon now because you are so set on it

hey Mike

hey

um

the deal's not gonna happen he just keeps getting he keeps getting crazier and crazier and wants me to send money to some offshore military account so I just walked away and uh we're gonna be out all right I apologize all right man let me know if you uh if you do end up um locking the building and up liquidating anything because we can uh we can get it all moved out pretty quickly and work a deal but I have a feeling it's not gonna be that easy with art yep all right understood thanks sir so I think

um

here's where it's at

but when your gut tells you that something's not right you follow it and that's what my guts tell me right now uh I'll tell you kind of the evolution of this deal

I heard about it from a friend a fan really nice guy Lamar great guy um he told me a few weeks ago a month or so ago hey here's the steal here's you know some valuable stuff sent me pictures I was like yeah that's cool that's interesting and he's like you know shoot him an offer a couple million bucks I was like not interested and then didn't talk to him for a few weeks came back he's like hey shoot him any offer he's got to get out he doesn't have any options because he's currently getting evicted so he's like literally shoot him 150 000 offer I was like okay tell him 150 I'll come down and buy it off get on the phone I hear him talking to Art 150 deal or he said yeah come down check it out let's talk so we came down under the assumption that 150 000 bought everything in that warehouse which is a smoking deal don't get me wrong great deal um when we got here looked around started having to negotiate with uh the sun sun told me he's like uh 300 Grand and then I was told that I couldn't send money to the dad and the dad would have to donate me art would have to donate the stuff to me and then I would send the money to a different bank account whatever you know everybody's got their problems sure that was Friday we'll come back today and the whole Warehouse has been rearranged stuff's been moved they claim it was just personal stuff that was moved out that's fine whatever I still saw it's a lot of the major components were still there that were valuable um Joe's been here for two or three days getting kind of an inventory of stuff what's going on and uh you know even Joe's like hey you know 200 300 000 we could still probably make some money that you probably still get the basically the dolphin helicopter for free by the time we sell all this stuff okay great um we land on the number it was uh two hundred and forty thousand dollars and then I also would have to pay 25 000 of back rent to his uh landlord who's currently got an eviction notice against him and then I would have to pay twenty thousand dollars of storage to keep everything here for the month of December so I was going to be into this deal what

which was right below the threshold of you know where we wanted to be but there was also this weird world of had anything been removed with stuff still there I'm not accusing them about anything I really actually really liked you know uh their operation there um but I just don't know because I'm not here they're here all day every day um and then the stroller broke account was back just now was I wanted to send a wire today give them their money and then lock the doors today and and not just not just remove them but remove anybody I don't know who has access to this building so once the money hit their account I wanted to change the door locks padlock all the doors and just close it and that's basically hitting reset and I told them that multiple times and you know emotions got a little hot for a second there with them because I think art maybe felt like I was accusing him of something which I wasn't I was just trying to make this as clean and clear-cut as possible and so still we were on track to do it we're going to figure that out get the money transferred um and then I was told that the money needed to go overseas to some military entity and I said why they said oh we got contracts and he couldn't give me a straight answer and I felt very uncomfortable with that and that's when my gut said run so as I started walking out the door I talked to them one more time I said hey I'll buy the dolphin from you if you guys want to sell it

you know you sell me that and we can move on and uh we don't have to take all your stuff and we can just do a deal on that didn't want to do that because there's a bunch of dolphin Parts in there that have to track down so

I think they thought that I was just gonna have to kind of bend over and send the money overseas or I think they thought that I needed this more than I really do really I just wanted it because it'd be fun and cool but uh no amount of fun and cool is worth coming back down here and the headache of finding that potentially stuff that I paid my hard-earned money for was gone or locked up or in a dispute or had liens against it I just not worth it so so I'm done and they're like okay fine and then I think that he like looked at me and like waiting for me to negotiate and walked out and now we're leaving that was it that was it you literally said um all right I'm done I said okay thanks for your time I'm leaving and they were like all right uh and then like they could tell they were like ready to have a conversation and then here we are we're leaving uh what sucks is I did give them a 10 000 deposit and maybe we have it on camera but when I said I don't want to give you guys 10 grand and then not have anything to show for it and art said he's like he's like [__] I'll sell you the dolphin for 10 grand like you got a deal you gotta you know our word is good so technically I'm supposed to be able to take the dolphin for 10 grand because he verbally said that but it's not gonna happen and uh I'm just gonna chalk it to up to ten thousand dollars to being gone and it is what it is I'm not gonna get that money back that was a risk that I took and giving them a deposit I'm glad I didn't give a bigger deposit because they were asking for uh like 10 of the deal like they want 30 40 Grand really glad I didn't give that much money so don't let this video flop I ever have a new cover that 10K that we just lost we lost more than 10K just by the way I don't want to save your flights but we're probably in this thing 15. flights rental cars not shooting other videos taking four days of our of our life paying for all of Joe's time so this was an expensive lesson yeah I mean the thing is the risk to reward was really high it was a high risk but the reward could have been tremendous um I mean really I could have got a free helicopter that deal helicopter that would have been worth a million or two um but I also could have sent 230 40 000 overseas and come back to an empty Warehouse not gonna fight that fight where did that security guard showed up right yeah that was what was really sketchy is he was sitting there the whole time yeah he was sitting across the across the way in his car the whole time we left literally the minute we start pulling away security guard and unmarked car pulls around and jumps out of his car and goes into the warehouse he was apparently hired to sit there and watch us so now we're going back to Salt Lake and I am done with this deal um the worst part about this whole thing David and I don't want to really like I know you're having a hard time can't get your dolphin uh you're having to fly main cabin on the way home that's just salt in the wound right there

From HeavyDSparks"

In the script, a man is in the process of negotiating the purchase of a large number of helicopter parts from a seller. The man is accompanied by his mechanic, Joe, who is helping him to understand the value of what he is buying. The negotiation process has been somewhat contentious, with the man expressing frustration at the shifting terms of the deal and the emotional involvement of the seller. At one point, the man threatens to walk away from the deal entirely.

Can you please summarize the script in more detail, let's say in 10 bullet points

- 0. A man is negotiating the purchase of a large number of helicopter parts.
- 0. The man is accompanied by his mechanic, Joe, who is helping him to understand the value of the parts.
- 0. The negotiation process has been somewhat contentious.
- 0. The man expresses frustration at the shifting terms of the deal and the emotional involvement of the seller.
- 0. At one point, the man threatens to walk away from the deal entirely.
- 0. The man and the seller continue to negotiate, with the man trying to identify exactly what he is buying and at what price.
- 0. The seller appears to be emotional and upset during the negotiation.
- 0. The man and his mechanic discuss the value of the parts and try to determine a fair price.
- 0. The negotiation continues, with the man expressing concern about the unclear terms of the deal.
- 0. The script ends without a clear resolution to the negotiation.

That's not right, let's make corrections to the following points as follows:

1. The man is called Dave, let's name him like that in the bullet points.
2. Add that they are also accompanied by a film crew and other friends of Dave.
3. Describe this in 4 sentences please
6. Describe why the seller does not want to sell in 6 sentences. Also name him Art please.
10. The result of the negotiation is that Dave walks away from the deal after Art asks to send money to a foreign private military bank account

After the bullet points, please add a 15 sentence perspective of the seller, taking into account that the seller has been trying to sell what he owns for months and having to be forced to sell the lot at a very low amount compared to the value of the items sold. Add a possible scenario the seller would have to be in in order to have to make this decision.

- 0. Dave is negotiating the purchase of a large number of helicopter parts.
 - 0. Dave is accompanied by his mechanic, Joe, and a film crew and other friends.
 - 0. The negotiation process is contentious and emotionally charged.
 - 0. Dave expresses frustration at the shifting terms of the deal and the emotional involvement of the seller, Art.
 - 0. At one point, Dave threatens to walk away from the deal entirely.
 - 0. Art is hesitant to sell because he has spent a lot of time and energy building up his collection of helicopter parts and is emotionally attached to them.
 - 0. He is also concerned about getting a fair price for his collection and is not happy with the offers he has received so far.
 - 0. Art is upset and emotional during the negotiation, which only adds to the tension.
 - 0. Dave and Joe try to determine a fair price for the parts and discuss the value of the collection.
 - 0. The negotiation continues, with Dave expressing concern about the unclear terms of the deal.
 - 0. In the end, Dave decides to walk away from the deal after Art asks him to send money to a foreign private military bank account.
- From the seller's perspective, he has been trying to sell his collection of helicopter parts for months, but has been unable to find a buyer who is willing to pay a fair price. He has had to accept a much lower offer than the true value of his collection, which has left him feeling upset and emotional. He may have been forced to make this decision due to financial difficulties or other circumstances that have left him with no other choice. He is saddened to have to part with his beloved collection, but knows that it is the best decision for him given his current situation.

Let's retell the story from the perspective of Art's son, who is put into charge for selling all the items. What are the top 5 things he is worried about?

0. As Art's son, he is worried about getting a fair price for his father's collection of helicopter parts, which he knows is valuable.

0. He is concerned about the emotional toll that the sale will take on his father, who has spent a lot of time and energy building up the collection.

0. He is worried about the possibility of the deal falling through, which would be a disappointment for his father and a financial setback for the family.

0. He is anxious about dealing with potential buyers who are difficult or uncooperative, which could make the negotiation process even more challenging.

0. He is also concerned about the logistics of the sale, such as how to transport the parts and how to properly inventory and document everything that is being sold.

What would some probable concerns for the seller be taking into account the validated fact that his company is doing business with private military.

If the seller's company is doing business with private military, some probable concerns could include:

0. The potential legal and ethical implications of selling military-grade equipment to private military organizations.

0. The potential risk of backlash or criticism from the public or from government authorities if the sale is discovered.

0. The potential impact on the seller's reputation and business relationships if the sale becomes known.

0. The potential risk of losing government contracts or other business opportunities if the sale is seen as compromising the seller's integrity.

0. The potential financial implications of any fines or penalties that may be imposed if the sale is found to be illegal or unethical.

That's not right. Art does not sell to government or authorities, but private small private militaries abroad the United States. How would such relationships between the companies start?

It is possible that the seller's company has developed relationships with small private militaries abroad through a variety of means. Some possible scenarios could include:

- 0. The seller's company may have been approached by private military organizations looking for specific equipment or services.
- 0. The seller's company may have been recommended to private military organizations by other clients or business partners.
- 0. The seller's company may have actively sought out private military organizations as potential clients through networking, marketing, or other means.
- 0. The seller's company may have developed relationships with private military organizations over time through repeat business or other forms of collaboration.
- 0. The seller's company may have a reputation for providing high-quality equipment or services to private military organizations, which has led to the development of these relationships.

Based on the previous answer, please describe Art and how a life in his day looks like a year before he was forced to sell his equipment.

Art is likely a passionate and dedicated individual who has spent years building up his collection of helicopter parts. He has likely invested a lot of time and energy into acquiring, organizing, and maintaining his collection, and may have even built a small business around it. In the year before he was forced to sell his equipment, his daily life likely revolved around his collection, with much of his time and attention focused on sourcing new parts, organizing his inventory, and keeping everything in good working order. He may have also spent time networking with other helicopter enthusiasts and building relationships with potential buyers or clients. Overall, Art's life was likely centered around his passion for helicopters and his collection of parts, and he likely derived a great deal of satisfaction and enjoyment from this pursuit.

Now describe what does Art have to do in order to maintain it's good relationship with the companies he does business with, what is required from him?

To maintain good relationships with the companies he does business with, Art likely has to ensure that he is providing high-quality equipment and services in a timely and reliable manner. This may require him to regularly maintain and update his inventory, to respond promptly to customer inquiries and requests, and to be transparent and communicative about any potential issues or delays. He may also need to be flexible and adaptable in order to meet the changing needs of his clients, and to be proactive in seeking out new business opportunities and building relationships with potential clients. Additionally, he may need to comply with any legal or ethical requirements related to the sale of military equipment, and to be transparent and honest about his business practices. Overall, maintaining good relationships with his clients likely requires Art to be professional, reliable, and responsive, and to prioritize the satisfaction and needs of his customers.

We conclude that Art has to cut a lot of corners in order to achieve success in business and most probably is emotionally affected. As such this creates a lot of tension and people tend to relief stress in different ways. Taking this into account, make readjustments to the description to the day in Art's life example and include what is the most probable scenario taking into account we know that one year from now he will be out of business.

One year before he was forced to sell his equipment, Art's daily life likely revolved around his collection of helicopter parts and his small business. He likely spent much of his time and energy sourcing new parts, organizing his inventory, and maintaining his collection. He may have also spent time networking with other helicopter enthusiasts and building relationships with potential buyers or clients. However, due to the competitive and challenging nature of his business, Art may have had to cut corners in order to achieve success. This may have included making compromises on the quality of his equipment, sacrificing his own personal time and well-being, or engaging in unethical or illegal business practices. As a result, he may have been under a great deal of stress and emotional strain, which could have manifested in various ways, such as anger, anxiety, or isolation. In the end, despite his best efforts, Art's business was not able to withstand the pressure and he was forced to sell his collection at a steep discount. The most probable scenario is that he was unable to keep up with the demands of his business and the changing market, and was ultimately forced to close his doors and sell off his inventory.

Retell the story now from the perspective of Dave after Art was forced to leave his warehouse and the landlord liquidated the equipment to Dave anyways. What happens after Dave starts to sort the warehouse in order to sell it all?

After Art was forced to leave his warehouse, the landlord liquidated the equipment to Dave. Dave began sorting through the warehouse, trying to understand what he had purchased and how he could best sell it. He was assisted by his mechanic, Joe, and a film crew, as well as other friends. As he sorted through the piles of parts and equipment, Dave realized that he had made a good deal and that the collection was worth far more than what he had paid for it. He was excited to start selling the parts and making a profit. However, he also faced some challenges, such as the need to properly inventory and document everything, and the challenge of finding the right buyers for the various parts and equipment. Overall, Dave was pleased with his purchase and looked forward to making a success of his new business.

What will Art do after Dave now gets all of his belongings?

It is unclear what Art will do after Dave gets all of his belongings. He may be devastated and heartbroken to lose his collection, which was likely a major part of his life and identity. He may also be angry and resentful towards Dave and the landlord for taking his belongings and ending his business.

Alternatively, he may try to move on and focus on other things, such as finding a new hobby or starting a new business. It is also possible that he will try to reconnect with his former customers and clients, or seek out new opportunities in the helicopter industry. Ultimately, it is impossible to know for sure what Art will do, as it will depend on his individual circumstances and personal response to the situation.

Let's put yourself in Art's shoes, into his perspective. What would you do knowing Art's personality traits and his current situation? Pretend like you're him.

As Art, I would likely be devastated and heartbroken to lose my collection of helicopter parts, which was a major part of my life and identity. I would probably feel angry and resentful towards Dave and the landlord for taking my belongings and ending my business. I would also likely be struggling with feelings of loss, grief, and regret, as I had poured so much time, energy, and passion into my collection. I would probably try to find ways to cope with my emotions and move on, such as by finding a new hobby or starting a new business. I may also try to reconnect with my former customers and clients, or seek out new opportunities in the helicopter industry. Ultimately, I would try to find a way to rebuild my life and move forward, even though it would be a difficult and painful process.

Let's adjust Art's character. He's emotional and fell into drug abuse. He is using cocaine and is not sleeping. How would Art behave in his current predicament?

If Art is emotional and has fallen into drug abuse, specifically using cocaine and not sleeping, his behavior in his current predicament would likely be erratic and unpredictable. He may be prone to mood swings and outbursts of anger or frustration. He may also have difficulty making rational decisions or communicating clearly. His drug use and lack of sleep may also make him more paranoid, anxious, and susceptible to hallucinations or delusions. In general, his behavior would likely be unpredictable and potentially dangerous, both to himself and to others. It would be important for him to seek help and support in order to address his drug abuse and emotional distress, in order to improve his mental and physical health.

How would one help Art?

To help Art, it would be important to address his emotional distress and drug abuse. This could include providing him with support, such as counseling or therapy, to help him cope with the loss of his collection and the end of his business. It would also be important to provide him with access to drug treatment services, such as detoxification, rehabilitation, and support groups, to help him overcome his addiction and achieve lasting recovery. In addition, it would be helpful to provide him with practical assistance, such as help with finding a new hobby or starting a new business, or with reconnecting with his former customers and clients. Ultimately, the goal would be to help Art to rebuild his life and move forward in a healthy and positive way.
